

Bor Orphanage & Community Education Project Inc

www.bororphanage.com

PRESENTS a SCREENING of:

WAR CHILD

life story of internationally renowned peace activist, hip hop artist, refugee & child soldier

Emmanuel Jal

featuring footage from his time as a boy soldier in Southern Sudan.

Lowanna College

72-96 Newark Avenue, Newborough

Thursday 15th March, 2012

6.30-10.30pm

- Sample tastings of authentic African food.
- Question & Answer time following screening with Rev. Abraham Maluk & Abraham Malual, former Lost Boys of Sudan, whose lives parallel that of Emmanuel Jal's.

All proceeds to BOCEP to assist in funding an orphanage/school for traumatised child victims of the decades long war in Southern Sudan.

BOOKINGS: Select Music Systems, 73 Franklin Street
Traralgon. Ph: (03) 51742849

TICKETS $20.00

Please note: There will be a small charge for all bookings made using EFTPOS
Children under 13 must be accompanied by an adult

