

ubuntu
the art of giving

Join us!

for our annual summer's evening of art, music, food and wine in the beautiful grounds of Sydney College of the Arts, Callan Park.

This year, Ubuntu supports World Families Australia in providing treatment, rehabilitation and education for blind children in Ethiopia.

Opening night festivities Friday February 24 at 7pm

Artworks at the show, donated by outstanding Australian artists, will be for sale. 100% of funds raised from sales will reach the charity. The exhibition will also feature a selection of contemporary Chinese art and Qing Dynasty treasures.

Tickets $25 include entertainment under the stars, wine and fine food donated by Hatrick Catering of Balmain.

The exhibition continues with free admission 25 & 26 February 10am-4pm.

www.ubuntuart.com.au

World Families is a community based, not for profit, non-sectarian organization, providing international aid through relief and development. Ubuntu will fund vital WFA projects for blind children in Jimma Ethiopia.

www.worldfamilies.org.au

RSVP

February 22 February Gillian Johnston 0419 989011

Venue

Sydney College of the Arts, Callan Park Rozelle
(enter from Balmain Road opposite Cecily Street)

proudly sponsored by:

*H*ATRICK *E*ATERING

